

PREMIER GREENWAY WANTS MORE TIME

THE MATTER TO IMPORTANT TO BE HURRIED

The Notice of Adjournment Was Given Yesterday And They Will Wait Until May to Decide—The Orange-man Adopt Very Strong Resolutions At their Meeting.

Winnipeg, Man., March 29.—Premier Greenway gave an official statement to the legislature yesterday on the school question which has caused an entirely new sensation in Manitoba and Canadian politics. On the opening of the legislature the premier gave notice that on the reassembling of the house May 9 he would move that this house forthwith take into consideration the message of his honor the lieutenant-governor—in other words, the now famous remedial order of the Dominion government. This means that the question would stand over till the Dominion parliament again deals with the order at the session at Ottawa April 18.

This motion will be presented to-day when the house adjourns to May 9. The decision of the government to adjourn until May comes as a surprise to those not in the confidence of the executive, as the general impression was that the house would proceed with the consideration of the remedial order at once.

A member of the cabinet was asked what the object of the government was in moving an adjournment. His reply was that the remedial order was too important a matter, involving, as it does, great vital issues, to be dealt with precipitately by the house, and it was therefore deemed wise to take ample time to become thoroughly acquainted with the whole range of the subject. During the recess the government will have the required opportunity of studying out the situation and take advice from leading constitutional authorities respecting the status of the legislature in the premises, while the private members of the house will be able to attend to personal affairs demanding their attention.

At the Orange Grand lodge in session here yesterday, delegates being present from all parts of the west, strong resolutions on the parochial school question were adopted by a unanimous vote. The resolutions uphold the Manitoba government and denounce the Ottawa authorities for their action.

GET A HOT RECEPTION.

The son of the station agent, Mr. Morris, was also dangerously injured. The bodies were brought here.

Fierce Forest Fire in New Jersey.

Brigantine Junction, N. J., March 29.—A fierce forest fire burned in this section all day yesterday. The district between Pleasantville, N. J., and this place has been burned. Many buildings and a large quantity of timber were consumed by the flames and the loss will aggregate thousands of dollars. The origin of the fire is unknown. The high winds rapidly spread the flames and increased the difficulty of fighting the fire.

CAUGHT BY THE BEARD.

Beautiful Row in the Nebraska Senate Yesterday.

Lincoln, Neb., March 29.—Senator H. G. Stewart, a populist, of Dawes county, engaged in an encounter with the sergeant-at-arms on the floor of the senate yesterday afternoon which, before it was concluded, almost precipitated a general hand-to-hand conflict between political friends of the combatants. The senator caused the trouble by refusing to obey an order from the chair. The lieutenant-governor rapped for order, but the senator ignored him. The sergeant-at-arms was directed to quiet the speaker, but when he attempted to do so the now thoroughly angry Dawes county member resisted vigorously. The sergeant caught him by the beard and held on as if his life were at stake. The chamber by this time was in an uproar, every member leaving his seat and crowded around the two original combatants, the presiding officer meantime shouting for order at the top of his voice. Finally Lieut.-Gov. Moore abandoned the chair, ordered the sergeant-at-arms to release Stewart and brought about a semblance of order. The populists moved to adjourn, but this was voted down and a resolution adopted giving Senator Stewart twenty-four hours in which to apologize to the senate or to stand committed as worthy of a vote of censure. The house, after an exciting debate, defeated the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln.

EVIDENCE AGAINST TAYLORS.

Trial for the Murder of the Meeks Family at Carrollton, Mo.

Carrollton, Mo., March 29.—The trial of the Taylor brothers for the murder of the Meeks family was resumed yesterday. The most damaging testimony was that of Mrs. John Carter, to whose husband little Nellie went the morning of the murder and told the story of the murder. J. C. Smith, the captor of the Taylors, was also examined and said the Taylors admitted going to Milan the night of the murder and spiriting the Meeks family away, but said they left the family at a point near Brown and some one else killed them for their money. A number of witnesses were placed on the stand who testified that W. P. Taylor had said at several different times regarding Gus Meeks that the brothers intended to kill him.

ST. AUGUSTINE SWEEPED BY FIRE.
Forty-nine Residences and Business Houses Destroyed.

St. Augustine, Fla., March 29.—The northwestern portion of this city was swept by fire yesterday afternoon, destroying forty-nine residences and business houses, besides several smaller structures, entailing a loss of $100,000, with little insurance. A large portion of the residences destroyed were owned by poor people, and many families are homeless to-night. Altogether the fire swept clear seven blocks thickly covered with houses, some of them fine residences. It seemed at one time as though a great part of the town must go, but by heroic efforts the flames were subsided.

St. Louis, Mo., March 29.—A boarding house in East St. Louis, in which were quartered a number of non-union men who were working for the Tudor Iron works, burned yesterday morning at 3 o'clock. No warrants have been sworn out, and no confirmation of the iron works officials' suspicions has manifested itself.

Neutral Toward China.

St. Petersburg, March 29.—The statement is published here upon semi-official authority that Germany and the United States, replying to the solicitations of the Chinese peace envoys, declare that they had resolved to observe strict neutrality. ## A BUNCH OF ITEMS FROM OVER THE SEA

ENGLAND AND FRANCE GROWL OVER AFRICA.

Statement in the British House of Commons Causes Alarm—French Troops Go to Madagascar—Russia Massing Her Warships—Provincial Government for Cuba.

London, March 29.—The ministerial statement in the house of commons last night that the British government regarded the dispatch of French expeditions to the Niger country as an unfriendly act, created a profound sensation. The statement is credited by some of the members as a menace to France and almost a declaration of war, and it is felt that such a tone would not be adopted by the government unless milder representations had failed of the desired effect. It was suggested that Lord Rosebery relies on the influence of Russia being cast against France should it adopt an aggressive line; but others believe that the effect of the new balance of power in Europe would be that Russia and Germany would stand by, while Great Britain and France fought an exhausting war.

The Royal Niger company recently complained to the British government that two French exploring expeditions had invaded territory in the Upper Nile Valley that is under British protection. The French official press contends that there was no invasion, the expeditions having been sent merely to ascertain boundaries, etc. An acrimonious discussion of the matter ensued between the French and English press. The question came before the house of commons when Sir Edward Grey warned the house against placing credence in mere rumors. He counseled waiting for an explanation from France, because any such advance as that complained of by the Royal Niger company would be an unfriendly act, and he added, it was well known to France that Great Britain would so regard it.

TROOPS GO TO MADAGASCAR.

President Faure Gives Them a Stand of Colors and Words of Cheer.

Paris, March 29.—President Faure yesterday presented a stand of colors to the Two Hundredth regiment, prior to its departure for the island of Madagascar. ### Provisional Government for Cuba.

Madrid, March 29.—Telegrams received here from Cuba say Gen. Antonio Maceo, together with twenty-six other leaders of the insurrection movement in Cuba, is about to form a provisional government. Four gunboats—the Janey Pinzon, Martin Pinzon, Galicia, and Filipina—have been ordered to proceed to Cuba to reinforce the fleet there.

England Will Ask Spain to Settle.

Baltimore, Md., March 29.—Capt. Seagrave, the British consul at this port, held a formal investigation of the killing of Seaman John Low of the steamship Laurestina. Capt. ## A HEAVY WIND BLEW IN NEW YORK CITY

HARDEST GALE THEY'VE HAD IN TWENTY YEARS.

Tug Was Sunk in the River and One Man Was Drowned While Windows Were Blown In and Telephone Poles Uprooted—Some Boats Ride Out the Storm.

New York, March 29.—The heaviest wind-storm since 1876 prevailed in this region yesterday. High buildings were well tested, for the wind reached a velocity of sixty-five miles an hour between 9:50 and 9:55 o'clock in the morning, the highest ever recorded in this city with the exception of one day in March, 1876. The tug Mary A. Packer of the Lehigh Valley railway company sunk off Red Hook and one of its deckhands was drowned. The schooner Agricola was blown ashore at the foot of Thirty-fourth street, South Brooklyn. Its crew landed in safety. Men and women were bowled over on the streets. The United States training ship Alliance was in collision with the receiving ship Vermont at the Brooklyn Navy-Yard, carrying away the jibboom of the former vessel. Tugboat men had to abandon all idea of hauling big craft. A number of sailing vessels, deeply loaded, that were anchored on the upper bay awaiting tug-boats to haul them to the piers were obliged to remain at anchor. Several had to resort to the second bower to prevent dragging. The gale prevailed all along the Middle Atlantic and New England coast, and was accompanied by fair weather generally. Many windows were blown in and telegraph poles uprooted in this city.

TROUBLE AVERTED.

Another Injunction Order That May Simplify the Evictions.

Lincoln, Neb., March 29.—Judge Sanborn has filed another order in the Circuit court injunction suit of the United States against the Flournoy Live Stock & Real Estate company and 234 other defendants. The order requires them to appear April 2 to show cause why they be not permanently enjoined from interfering with the agent of the Winnebago-Omaha Indian reservations, and why they be not enjoined from inciting the Indians to leave the reservation lands in any manner without the consent of the agent. A temporary injunction is granted by Judge Sanborn restraining the defendants from entering into negotiations of this nature pending the decision. This temporarily prevents a collision on the reservation between the settlers and the United States marshals who were ready to evict them.

To Vote On It the Second Time.

Madison, Wis., March 29.—In the senate yesterday the resolution to submit to the people for a second time the constitutional amendment allowing cities to adopt special charters was passed. Senator Bashford's bill limiting railroad rates and providing transferable mileage books was made a special order for to-day. The assembly passed the bill repealing the famous Ludwig law passed in 1891, which gave the wishes of parents and friends consideration in the commitment of dependent children. The bill has been bitterly fought by the Catholics of Milwaukee county, who maintain schools to which Catholic children are sent in lieu of sending them to the state school at Sparta.

Warships Go to Nicaragua.

Washington, March 29.—A cable message was sent to Admiral Meade at Kingston yesterday ordering him to dispatch two war vessels of his fleet to the vicinity of Greytown and Bluefields, Nicaragua. Great Britain will have a man of war off Bluefields of Greytown before April 16, when the limit of time allowed Nicaragua to settle the indemnity demanded expires. The detaching of the two ships of war for the South Atlantic fleet is taken to mean that before that date two vessels flying the United States colors will be in the neighborhood.

Each Faction Accused of Arson.

Omaha, Neb., March 29.—The burning of St. Paul's Polish church at Sheeley Wednesday night has by no means settled the church fight which has entertained this section for five years. ### BISMARCK'S GOLD SWORD.

A Masterpiece of Art and Inscribed With Memorable Words.

Berlin, March 29.—The sword presented by the emperor to Bismarck is a masterpiece of art. The hilt is entirely of gold and is surmounted with a cameo portrait of the emperor. The sheath is of nickel, with gold rings. On one side of the plate is inscribed: "To Prince Bismarck, Duke of Lauenburg on the Completion of His Eightieth Year." The emperor's and the empire's arms are on the same side. On the other side are Bismarck's and the reichslind's arms, together with Bismarck's famous words: "We Germans Fear God, but Nothing Else in the World." The pope originally intended to send Bismarck a telegram or letter of congratulation, but in view of the clerical party's attitude, it is believed he will merely instruct Cardinal Kopp to communicate his best wishes to the old chancellor.

MANY SPANIARDS SLAIN.

Carlos M. Aguirre of Cuba Tells of Recent Battle.

Key West, Fla., March 29.—Carlos M. Aguirre, accompanied by his brother George, has arrived on the Olivette from Havana. The brothers were in the battle in the mountains near Santiago de Cuba, March 25, when 297 Spaniards were killed, including four officers. The Cuban loss was fifty wounded and about eighteen killed. General Jose Maria Aguirre, uncle of Carlos Aguirre, was confined in prison Feb. 24, and would probably have been killed but for the reason that he is an American citizen. The troops landed at Havana on Sunday and Monday. It is said, are in poor condition and are poorly clad, and many of them are mere boys.

MANY FARMS RUINED.

Bridges Swept Away by the Bursting of a Reservoir in Colorado.

Newcastle, Col., March 29.—The reservoir of the Grand Valley Ditch company on East creek, six miles north-west of here has burst. The reservoir was not quite full but there was enough water, mud and rocks to cover and destroy for this season all the ranches for five miles along the creek. The flood struck the Rio Grande Junction railroad, carrying away two bridges and covering the railway track with mud and rocks. It will be five or six days before the track can be used for travel and it is impossible to transfer.

FIREBUGS AT DECATUR, ILL.

Three Disastrous Blazes Charged to the Gang.

Decatur, Ill., March 29.—The city is wild with excitement over the discovery that there is an organized band of firebugs here. Three disastrous fires have been directly traced to their work. The large barn belonging to J. J. Heyon was destroyed, with seven head of horses and a large amount of grain and hay. While this fire was in progress a second alarm was turned in from another part of the city, where a frame building, used as a meat market, was discovered in flames. After the fire was subdued it was found that the walls and interior woodwork had been saturated with coal oil. A number of fires during the last month are charged to the gang.

Wheat Crop Needs Rain.

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 29.—The Price Current summarizes crop conditions for the past week as follows: "There has been some relief in the wheat crop by rains, in portions of Kansas and, to a limited extent, elsewhere, but most of the area is suffering more or less from insufficient moisture. The general average condition was further lowered during the past week. Ample rains would soon shape the outlook more favorably."

Blacklists of Strikers.

Denver, Col., March 29.—The house committee appointed to investigate the alleged blacklisting of strikers by the railroads has submitted two reports. The majority report, stating that the railroad companies do not exchange blacklists, has been adopted by the house. The minority report, stating that a blacklist is virtually in effect, was supported by all the populist members of the house except one.

Fort Scott, Kan., March 29.—The mystery of the murder of Stewart Strevel on his ranch four miles east of this city on the night of March 15, has been solved by disclosures made by the wife of Noah Strevel, a son of the murdered man, to the effect that her husband had committed the crime. ## LAW MAKERS PLAN TO QUIT APRIL 18

THE ASSEMBLY ADOPTED THE RESOLUTION.

While the Senate Laid It Over Until Wednesday But Will Adopt It—Seeds for Fire Sufferers—New Fish Hatchery—Vestibules for Cars—Other Business.

Madison, April 29.—The legislature will probably adjourn April 18. The assembly adopted the resolution and the senate laid it over until Wednesday but will adopt it. In the senate the assembly bill granting $100,000 for seeds for the fire sufferers, passed under suspension of the rules.

The assembly passed the bill compelling street car companies to vestibule their cars before December, 1896, authorizing cities to purchase or lease water and lighting plants; the Superior warehouse bill; Hall's railroad commission bills were a special order for April 9, at 8 o'clock, when the last fight on the measures will occur. After debate the bill appropriating $800 for a fish hatchery in the northern part of the state, was passed to a third reading.

Bills killed—Senate—For the sale of mileage books at two cents a mile to be used by husband and wife. The county option bill and bill for licensing fee paid by palace car companies were reported for indefinite postponement. Bashford's bill regarding railroad charges was again referred to the railroad committee.

IS BEATEN BY A VOTE.

Torrens Land Bill Fails to Pass the Illinois Senate.

Springfield, Ill., March 29.—In the senate yesterday Bartling's dental bill was postponed for two weeks. Senator Ford's valued policy bill was advanced to a third reading.

The Bogardus bill, compelling street cars to be provided with safeguards, was advanced to a third reading. The Walls bill, fixing the compensation of the members of the general assembly at $5.50 a day for regular and $5 a day for special sessions, was passed. Senator Humphrey called up the Torrens land title measure for third reading. Senators Leeper, Crawford and Hamer opposed the measure, as the bill does not in their opinion protect the interests of minors and insane persons. Senator Crawford insisted that the bill was only in the interest of real estate brokers, and that its passage would cause many suits interminable. The bill failed to pass by a vote of 19 yeas to 19 nays. Senator Humphrey made a motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill was lost, and consideration of it was made a special order for next Wednesday.

The house resolution, providing for the improvement of the outlet of Spring Lake to Illinois River, was concurred in. Senators Salomon, Fisher, Lundin, Campbell of Cook, Bartling and O'Brien were appointed as the committee to investigate department stores under Salomon's resolution. The house passed the bill making an appropriation of $35,000 for the repair and care of Lincoln monument, without a dissenting vote. A large number of bills of minor importance were then read a second time and advanced, after which the house adjourned.

HAS TOO MANY HONORS.

German Liberal Papers Resent Bismarck Adulation.

London, March 29.—A dispatch from Berlin says that all the rumors in relation to the dissolution of the reichstag have ceased. The government is drifting helplessly between the hostile agrarians and the anti-Bismarckians and is seeking vainly for a firm support.

The liberal papers deplore the emperor's veiled references to civil war. The Vossische Zeitung says it finds strange irony in the attempt to honor Prince Bismarck solely as a soldier and adds that it thinks some civil honor is reserved for April 1, the actual anniversary of the prince's birth. Among the presents to Prince Bismarck which have arrived at Friedrichsruhe is a pair of American buffalo from the Cincinnati Zoological gardens.

Will Own All the Steamers.

New York, March 29.—The culmination of protracted negotiations involving financial interest of great magnitude was signaled by the filing in the office of the secretary of the state of New Jersey of incorporation articles of the Hudson River Navigation company. The capitalists interested in the project announce that they have just signed contracts by which they come into control of the People's line of steamers and within a few weeks both this company and the People's line will be absorbed by a third new company, whose purpose also is to absorb the other principal Hudson river lines.

Not until a special train had arrived from Hornellsville with two companies of firemen and a steamer was the progress of the fire checked. Half of the population are homeless. The total loss will be about $100,000. The insurance will not more than half cover it. No lives were lost in the fire, but several persons were injured.

COLLEGE BOYS SING THEIR JOLLY SONGS

THE U. W. CLUBS WILL APPEAR
THIS EVENING.

Many of the Old Members of the Organization Are Still With Them and Janesville Is Represented by George Brownell and C. J. Carlson Travel In Their Own Special Cars.

Rolling college songs; the tinkling of the metallic banjos and mandolins and the deep notes of the guitar and cello, will be the music that a Janesville audience will listen to tonight when the musical organization of the University of Wisconsin will appear at the Myers Grand.

A college glee club is always fine, but the training of this club has been such that the concert is said to be better even than the one given by the clubs in this city last season. The Janesville friends and alumni of the university will make the occasion a social event of no little importance as well. There are certain things that have come to be inseparably associated with college life in America. In the fall there is the sturdy football player whose long unkempt hair looks like a cornfield after a whirlwind has passed by. In the spring time the base ball player, the track athlete, the tennis player and the oarsman divide the attention and admiration of the public. But by common consent the college musician has been allowed to hold away during the winter season and the Easter time has been set apart especially as the season in which the "plunkety, plunk, plunk," of the banjo is mingled with the smoother strains of the mandolin and the rollicking glees of the well trained voices. A great change has come across in recent years in college music. Formerly it was confined almost entirely to glees and then no trips were ever taken except to spend an evening in some town near at hand; but now every institution of higher learning of any prominence at all sends out her clubs for a two weeks' trip that often covers hundreds of miles. In recent years the music of the banjo, mandolin and guitar has been added to that of the voices, and the clubs travel in special trains that might well satisfy a nobleman.

Always Get a Hearty Welcome. Wherever the clubs go they are welcomed in a most hearty way. Their music recalls to college men the days gone by, and those who have not been privileged to learn to love the music while within college walls have come to appreciate its charm. There is a dash and a charm about the music that appeals to those who are not musicians themselves and with a touch and finish to the execution of it coming from long and careful training that pleases the most critical musicians. The Glee, Banjo and Mandolin clubs of the University of Wisconsin have planned an extended western trip this year and will go as far west as Omaha, while the southern limit of the trip is Chicago and the northern Minneapolis. The first week will be spent largely in Wisconsin. The first concert was given in Milwaukee on Saturday evening. From there they went Monday to Appleton, Tuesday to Oshkosh, Wednesday to Racine, and then in order to Chicago, Janesville, Des Moines, Council Bluffs, Sioux City, Minneapolis, Eau Claire and La Crosse. The trip is the most extended yet taken by the club.

Travel in Special Cars. They have the exclusive use of their special cars, a combination baggage and smoking car, a sleeping car and a dining car, in which they make their home during the entire trip. It is cheaper as well as more comfortable to travel in this way, as they can live for less money in their cars than it would cost to patronize the hotels of each city at which they stay, and the fact that such long distances are to be covered, makes it absolutely necessary that they should have the use of sleeping cars. A chef and two assistants, together with three waiters look after the needs of the inner man, while two negro porters attend to their wants in the sleeping car.

The clubs have already given several concerts, including one given in Madison, and these have shown them to be in excellent shape this year. One of the most pleasing features of the concert this year is the fact that so much of it is new, much of it having never been heard outside the university before, as it was composed by the university men. Charles Floyd McClure's song, "When Violets Are There," which has become so popular since last fall, is one of the numbers rendered by the clubs jointly. Mr. McClure has also written several other songs that will be used by the club. Among the catchy new pieces is a song celebrating the victory of the football eleven over Minnesota last fall in which extracts from Manager O'Brien's letters are used very effectively.

Make Up Of the Clubs.

A number of the old men are again with the clubs this year. The Glee club has more new men than any other club, as but six of the men sang last year. The Banjo club has four new and ten old men and the Mandolin club has ten old men and five new ones. ## SHOPIERE MAN HURT BY A RUNAWAY TEAM

M. F. ALLEN KNOCKED DOWN AND RUN OVER.

He Could Not get Out of the Way of Henry Case's Flying Horses—Mr. and Mrs. Case Were Thrown Off a Bridge Into the Brook—Other County News.

SHOPIERE, March 29.—Henry Case's team ran away on Tuesday afternoon. They started on the "big bridge" and when one of them kicked over the pole, they took a lively gallop for home. Mr. Case was unable to hold or guide them. As they flew over the "little arch bridge" one side of the buggy dropped over the edge, throwing Mr. and Mrs. Case over into the little brook on the east side. Luckily they escaped with some very severe bruises. The team continued on their wild run, and overtook M. F. Allen and P. Bostwick who were riding in a top buggy. They pulled their team up against the fence on the east side of the road. The team headed straight for the buggy however, and Mr. Allen, thinking he could get out of their way jumped out. He was not quite quick enough, however, and the team struck him knocking him down and running over him. Mr. Allen was quite badly hurt and will be laid up for some time. Farmers have commenced to plow and sow on the high and dry land. About the first of April the most of them will be at work. Rev. Thomas Barbour and family visited Edgerton relatives and friends there last week. John Weirick has been improving the looks of his meat market by building a front porch. It will be a very fine place to sit in the hot summer days that are to come, if the flies don't bother too much. Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson mourn the loss of their little son Lewis, who was born July 17, 1893, and died on Monday evening, at 11 o'clock, of pneumonia. Miss Chamberlin, of Chemung, Ill., has been spending a few days visiting friends in this place. Mrs. Cline from Minnesota, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Humphrey, Sr. Mrs. Sell Olin, from Janesville, was visiting relatives in this place the past week. A grand entertainment was held in the LaPrairie school house, in the Kemmerer district on Friday evening, March 22. A school exhibition is something that they have not had for a number of years. All those present enjoyed themselves very much. Miss McArthur is the teacher. Sam Capron, who is attending school at Stoughton, expects to spend the summer there.

FULTON WANTS A HIGH SCHOOL.

Many People, the Correspondent Says, Favor That Idea Just Now.

FULTON, March, 29.—Is a high school needed here? This topic has been discussed to some extent in the past, and recently revived. That a high school is of great benefit in many localities can not be doubted. In the judgment of many there is a demand in this village for a high school that would warrant the board in an effort to secure the same. The causes that add strength to this statement are well known, and while some may feel that this is an unfortunate condition of affairs, that feeling does not alter the existing circumstances, is argued. The public school as at present graded, furnishes a course of study that secures for the graduate a certificate, yet the classes that finish the course are quite small and a majority of the pupils in the higher room do not remain until ready for graduation. Many think therefore that a high school would increase the attendance sufficiently to warrant the additional expense, and also give the many children a chance here at home, instead of their being obliged to go abroad for that one great blessing. The remains of Willard Lyntz, a former resident of this place, were brought from Jackson, Mich., Tuesday and will be buried in the Edgerton cemetery. Mrs. Lyntz and family have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends in their great affliction. G. S. Dodge is home from Elkhorn for a short time. Herbie Marwin was over to Milton last Friday and Saturday. Frank Osborn was up from Chicago and stayed over Sunday with Mrs. E. Wallen and family, returning on Monday. The ladies will give a dinner and supper in the church Friday, April 13, to which all are most cordially invited. George Marwin wants to sell his post and billiard table. Many are glad to hear the sweet sounds from the band room again as they are a quite reminder of spring. Frank Burdick has been secured as a teacher. Phil Carry has moved his family upon a farm west of Edgerton. Mrs. Mary Murwin and Mrs. Hattie Brown attended church in Edgerton last Sunday morning and heard the Cheney quartette. John Noyes has gone to Janesville to work for Mr. Norcross in the electric power-house. The family will remain here for the present. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Behrendt of Chicago were guests of H. W. Lee and family over Sunday, Mrs. Behrendt being Mrs. Lee's sister. Mrs. Nellie Hill was up from Janesville last week to visit her mother. Miss Busha Pease accompanied her to her home for a short visit. There are three vacant houses now in town, the first in years. Farming seems to be what is going to count this year as those who have moved have gone to farming. S. C. Brown has secured in Evansville and will commence there soon. George and Henry Ten Eyck have rented the mill at the Ox Bow and will soon take up their residence in that place. Our Carpenters, Bentley & Schofield have secured the repairing upon the mill at Stebbinsville and will soon have it ready to run. Winfred Rowell who is attending Beloit college is spending a few days at home. Harvey Raymond is spending a short vacation at home after which he will return to Beloit college.

MILTON TO VOTE ON ROAD WORK

Proposition Will Come Up On Election Day—Other News Items.

MILTON, March 29.—The electors of Milton are to vote on the following questions at the town meeting. A special application for graving the highways, license, and for a return to the old system of working out taxes on roads. The gravel proposition, like its predecessors from the same source, is a "shot gun" affair and the funds to be raised by taxation would be distributed in various places and as past experience has taught, prove of but little value to the public. A return to the old system of road work under the present law would not meet the views of even those who are opposed to the present cash system, as commissioners would be a necessity as at present. We think a vast majority of our citizens are opposed to granting license in the town of Milton, and if the voters are wise they will oppose all three of the propositions mentioned. Robins in the park and the thermometer 70 degrees in the shade Wednesday. Some of the farmers in this locality were ploughing and sowing oats this week. Hon. Ed. Weaver, present mayor of Markato, Minn., has been nominated by both republicans and democrats of that city, for another term. He is a Milton boy and his friends here tender their congratulations. The annual meeting of the Milton Cemetery association will be held April 1, 1895, in the office of E. P. Clarke, at 7:30 o'clock. A general attendance of lot owners is earnestly desired. By order of the board of trustees. J. C. Plum, Sec. Du Lac Lodge conferred the Initiation degree at their last meeting. Visiting Brothers were in attendance from Dodge Center, Minn., Janesville and Milton Junction. Edward Burdick, a former resident, now making Chicago his home, was a visitor here this week. The sophomore class of Milton College banqueted at R. W. Brown's Monday evening. W. R. Brown and Floyd Coon left for Dakota and Manitoba this week. J. C. Goodrich visited Madison on Wednesday. Rev. W. T. Millar who has been spending some time with his son and wife at Waubesa returned this week. Miss Atwood of Madison is a Milton visitor. Miss Rutherford returned to her New York home Tuesday. Mrs. M. W. Greene made a business trip to Milwaukee this week. Misses Charlotte Maxson and Nellie and Berta Crandall took part in a musical entertainment at Albion this week. Ed. Coe's robins put in an appearance in the park this week. The King's Sons are to hold a business meeting at the reading room Monday evening. Professor Shaw left for Chicago Thursday to begin his studies in the university. W. W. Menzies, the piano tuner from Janesville, did business here Wednesday. Rev. George R. Chambers will preach at the Congregational church tomorrow morning.

Tracy. Town assessor—E. O. Sholes. Justices of the peace—E. P. Clarke, B. H. Stillman. Constables—J. C. Anderson, C. H. Osborn, Wesley Stockman.

HOME TALENT AT THE GROVE.

Entertainment Was Very Enjoyable—First Robin Is On Hand. EMERALD GROVE, March 29.—The entertainment given by the home talent on Friday evening last was well rendered and a large audience went away well pleased with the programme. Peter Decker has purchased the old Spear homestead and will soon be a resident of the village. Sunday and Monday were two typical March days and the roads are as dusty as in June. The frost is not all out of the ground yet but farmers are talking of seeding. Thomas Jones lost a valuable Clyde stallion last week. Janesville doctors are kept busy attending the sick in this neighborhood. Mrs. J. S. Wright, at present writing, is very low, and her death is looked for at any time. Mrs. Robinson, of Janesville, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Charles Doubleday. The first robin was seen March 26. John Scott, who sixteen years ago, left for Nebraska, is visiting friends in and about this place. He reports a failure of crops for the past two years. F. H. Wetmore, assisted by a pair of colts, furnished the citizens of Janesville a first class runaway last week. Rev. G. Hammond and daughter are spending a few days in Chicago.

B. H. Bowdman, Pub. Enquirer, of Bremen, Ind., writes: Last week our little girl baby the only one we have was taken sick with the croup. After two doctors failed to give relief and life was hanging on a mere thread we tried One Minute Cough Cure and its life was saved. C. D. Stevens.

JONES' ROAD BILL CAUSED A DEBATE

ROCK COUNTY ASSEMBLYMAN'S MEASURE REFERRED.

It Required that All the Road Taxes to Be Paid In Cash and Arguments Were Advanced Both Pro and Con—Plan Is of Much Interest Just Now.

Assemblyman S. S. Jones' road bill, which is of much interest just now, caused quite a debate in the assembly yesterday. The bill is No. 591 A., requiring road taxes to be paid in money, came up as the special order, and Mr. Cox spoke in its favor, saying it had been considered by a committee composed entirely of farmers, and represented their ideas on one of the most important measures before the legislature. He spoke long and earnestly in advocacy of the measure, making an argument highly creditable to himself and his side of the case.

Mr. Hall suggested that the bill be considered by sections, and Mr. Mohr objected. A vote was taken and Mohr won.

Mr. De Groff said it was news to him to hear that Mr. Cox represented intelligent farmers. He then read the first section of the bill, and objected to making the term of road superintendents three years. This would not be right, as long as the supervisors, who appointed the superintendents, would only be in office one year. His constituents objected to this bill, and he would like to know what became of the bill he had offered. The committee had unduly discriminated in the bills sent to them, and had favored the last one that came. He then attacked the bill in detail, being especially opposed to the idea of not allowing each town to decide whether taxes should be worked out or paid in cash. Another feature which he attacked was the proposed method of collecting poll tax which he considered cumbersome, ridiculous and expensive. Farmers whom he had seen were all against the bill.

Talked of the Tax.

Mr. Blake said he would like to know whether the treasurers would be allowed 2 per cent. for collecting the road tax.

Mr. Cox said he had been informed that they would not.

Mr. Hubert Wolf replied to Mr. De Groff, saying that some of his objections were unfounded. He could see no objection to working ten hours a day on the road, but did not think the number of commissioners should be limited to four in a town.

Mr. Marsh thought the bill could not be understood by the ordinary farmer.

Mr. Hirschinger said he should vote against the bill because it was objectionable to his constituents.

AN ALPINE YARN.

It was some four and twenty years ago, I am sorry to say, when as a young man I found myself in the Rhone valley, in Switzerland. I wasn't at all a practical sort of youth, like you fellows, and I'm bound to say I was just idling about there, staring at mountains, finding out the places famous in history, sketching and all the rest of it, but I enjoyed myself uncommonly in my own way, and so one evening I got to Brieg, which you may or may not know is an old town on the Swiss side of the celebrated Simplon pass leading into Italy.

I was a good deal too late to clash with many British tourists. The fact is it was December, and I had the hotel to myself. But the winter that year was altogether abnormally late, and there was, they told me, hardly any snow on the pass up to Berisal. If I chose to walk into Italy the next day, I might easily do it, spending one night at the hospice on the way.

The hotel proprietor who told me this added with a wink: "But you must be careful, sure. There is bad characters about. There has been found several dead bodies in the Salpêtre the last year, and they was all with empty pockets."

I laughed at this. I flattered myself that my revolver and I could account for any moderate dangers of that kind. As for concerted brigandage, the time for that had long gone by.

The next morning was lovely, with a blue sky and a thin mist which did not hide either the snow or the high Alps or the heavens above them. I strode out of Brieg toward the mountains, feeling as one does feel in youth on the eve of a splendid excursion.

I had got to the last little cluster of dark colored houses before the pines on the slope on the north side of the Ganten when a good looking Italian accosted me. I was in the humor to be sociable and readily accepted his offer to rest a moment or two in his chalet, which was close by.

It was here that I saw the girl who is my wife, though she is not a girl now, as you may suppose. I lost my heart to her as one does up and then to a girl. I'm not going to describe her as she then seemed to me—you fellows can hardly expect it—but I very soon saw that she felt an interest in me, and the realization quickened my pulse, I can tell you.

Well, I rested longer than I intended and was mighty vexed to have to stir at last.

"If I might hope to call again when I return," I said as I held the girl's hand for a moment in mine.

Her face satisfied me she was interested in me, and yet when her father, with a cheerful sort of grin, said that he meant to accompany me for a mile or two, "to show you the old road, signor, which is much shorter," she made objections which struck me at the time as very odd. "Made objections," I say, but it was a deal more than that. She began to cry, in fact, so that I seconded her and tried to persuade her father that he had better stay where he was.

The man insisted, however—politely enough, I must admit—and so we started, he looking rather wild, as if he didn't appreciate that domestic scene, and I feeling as if I'd willingly give up the Simplon and everything else to spend a day in that quiet chalet, with that pretty girl's gentle, kindly face beaming upon me. There was a sadness about the girl that won me as much as anything else.

But we hadn't been gone more than half an hour from the chalet when I understood what it all meant.

By this time we were about 11,000 feet above the Salpêtre stream, which brawls from the high Alps at the bottom of this fearful ravine. We were on the old road, just a mule track scratched in the side of the perpendicular rocks only four or five feet wide and with this alarming precipice to the right.

One of us had to precede the other and it was I who took the lead.

I was still thinking more of the pretty girl than the scenery when I felt a cruel blow on the back of my head. It laid me down in an instant, more than half unconscious. I was robbed—watch, purse, passport and all except the revolver, which I carried on the hip. Then the wretch tilted me over the rock, and it seemed to me I was dead.

But of course I wasn't dead, though it was well on in the afternoon before I could stir to realize it. I had caught in one of those gnarled old fir trees which grow out from the Simplon rocks almost at right angles to them. My God, what a position it was, to be sure! A fearful depth of sharp mountain side below me and the Glisshorn's precipice across the ravine, with the roaring stream in the gully.

Well, gentlemen, I got out of that hole—I don't much care to think how—and late in the night I crawled back to Brieg, looking, as they told me, like a dead man. But I said nothing about my adventure, for though I owed Caterina's father something considerable in the matter of vengeance I was loath to do anything to cause pain to Caterina herself. You see, I knew now what her entreaties had meant, and I loved her all the more for her tears on my behalf.

The next day, bruised and aching as I was, I returned to Sion. I had a plan in my head.

I staid at Sion a fortnight until I was fairly fit again. Then I returned to Brieg disguised out of all relation to the other fellow who was supposed to be rotting in the icy cleft through which the Salpêtre runs to the Rhone.

Another thing. I had got from Geneva a pair of excellent handcuffs. You can guess for whom.

This time I spent the night in a different hotel. I did not care to run the slight risk of being detected in my disguise. It might have been awkward, you see.

And so the following morning I set out again as I had set out before.

Now, gentlemen, you will not think me a very soft sort of con, I hope, when I say the nearer I got to the little village with the small white church in the midst—the village to which Caterina's father's chalet belonged—the less resentful I felt for the old man's past murderous attempt upon my life. I carried a scar or two as the result of that knock and that horrible tip over the cliff, but I was more affected by the thought of seeing Caterina again. And, sure enough, I soon saw her.

The man was toying with an ax upon a pine log in front of the house. I saw his teeth gleam at me while I was yet some little distance away. You see, I had made myself into a middle aged person of great respectability and apparent wealth, a German botanist or geologist or something of that kind. I flattered myself I should prove an irresistible bait.

And so I did.

"My friend," I inquired of him before he had the chance to speak, "is there not a short cut to Berisal from here?"

"Yes, sir," he replied promptly. "I shall take the liberty of showing it to you."

I had changed my voice as well as my appearance. It seemed to me unlikely in the extreme that Caterina could recognize me, and yet ere the man could get his coat and take his stick, a villainous sort of club, who should look out but Caterina herself!

I tell you, gentlemen, I was near giving up my little plan of revenge at sight of her or at least of compromising it then and there. She was the same Caterina, with a difference—there was more sadness in her than before. And when she cried, "Father, do not go," this time also it exacted all my self control to help me to dissemble.

We began our climb. When we reached the old mule track, I declined to go first. We had a little wrestle in politeness, as it appeared, but I won the day.

My gentleman stopped nearly at the very spot which had seen my misadventure and turned upon me, with a plea of fatigue. It was just here, too, that I designed giving him his punishment.

"Yes, we will rest," I said. And then in my natural voice, as I covered him with a revolver and held out with the other hand the bracelets I had bought for the purpose, I bade him slip his wrists into the things.

I could have enjoyed the rascal's discomfort if he had been anyone's father except Caterina's. As it was, I had to keep my wits about me. When he had got over the first shock at the sight of me (and it was a genuine shock to him), he was clearly bent on trying to get me over the precipice a second time.

But I did not allow him the smallest opening on that score. I had him handcuffed and then set him to return before me to the chalet. His cloak gave him cover for his shame in case we should meet any other travelers.

There was some fine drama in the scene that ensued when I had thus brought him back to his domestic hearth. "Look, girl!" he cried to his daughter, raising his manacled hands when we were inside the house.

As for me, I could only add, "It is I," and I blushed as I spoke.

Caterina seemed for a moment thunderstruck. I might, if I had not been in love, have expected a joint attack, in which I should assuredly have been annihilated. But I had not misread her interest in me. There was more joy in her face eventually at the realization that I lived than there was sorrow at her father's predicament.

Watching her, I forgot her father and cared nothing for the vengeance I had craved. I was, as I had believed, passionately in love.

Well, gentlemen, it only remains for me to tell you that I married this villain's daughter, and that I have never regretted it. If criminal instincts are hereditary, as our wise men nowadays tell us they are, there must be exceptions. My wife has been a success, and my children do not promise to be extraordinarily bad in character.

The young listeners to this story seemed surprised at its issue.

"But, sir," said one of them, "what in goodness did you do with your father-in-law?"

"I arranged for his emigration to America."

"Not North America. I do hope."

"Oh, dear, no—South"—Million.

Aunt—Don't you say your prayers at night?

IT'S A MILLSTONE

About a young man's neck to be a sufferer from nervous exhaustion, impaired memory, low spirits, irritability, and the thousand and one derangements of mind and body that result from unnatural, pernicious habits, contracted through ignorance. Such habits result in loss of manly power, wreck the constitution and sometimes produce softening of the brain, epilepsy, paralysis, and even dread insanity.

To reach, reclaim and restore such unfortunate to health and happiness, is the aim of the publishers of a book written in plain but chaste language, on the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. This book will be sent sealed, in plain envelope, on receipt of ten cents in stamps, for postage. Address, World's Dispensary, Medical Association, 63 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Plain Literary Women.

I heard it asserted the other day by a literary man that all clever women, at least women who had distinguished themselves above the common herd of their sisters, were plain-featured, unattractive, if not positively ugly. 'Tis true, and pity 'tis 'tis true, that almost all the great women of letters, Mme. de Staël, Mme. Sand, George Eliot, Charlotte Brontë, Mrs. Browning, and Miss Austen were plain women. The question then arises, is this the fault of nature, whose niggard hand will not deal out simultaneously beauty of feature and power of brain or is it the fault of women who are content to accept the appendage of beauty as a kingdom and power in itself, and seek no more so long as there are slaves ready and willing to be attached to their car? or is it that the plain woman, handicapped in the race of life with her beautiful sisters, has carved out a new career and a new triumph for herself? Prof. Lombroso, no doubt, has a ready answer for the problem. Meanwhile the new woman might refute the assertion triumphantly by growing beautiful as well as clever. Poetesses, at least, ought to be lovely, with the example of Byron, Keats, Shelley, Schiller and Goethe, Alfred de Musset and Tennyson before them. Nature, so generous to male poets, cannot surely refuse to women the privileges she lavishes on the sterner sex.—Graphic.

YOUNG GIRLS.

INTERESTING CONCLUSIONS.

Mothers Agree on One Vital Subject.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]
Young girls, to the thinking mind, are ever subjects of the deepest interest.

Some lead lives of luxury, while others toil for mere existence. Separate, however, as their paths in life may lie, Nature demands of them the same obedience.

Young girls are reticent through modesty, and often withhold what ought to be told.

Yet they are not to blame, for information on such subjects has been withheld from them, owing to the false interpretation of a mother's duty.

In such cases they should do as thousands of young ladies are doing every day: write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., giving as nearly as possible their symptoms, and receive her freely given advice and timely aid.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the young girl's most trusted friend. It can be obtained of any druggist, and speedily relieves and cures irregularities, suspension, retention, and all derangements of the womb and ovaries. It banishes promptly all pains, headache, backache, faintness, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholia, etc. Young girls must know that self-preservation is the first law of nature.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1461—Battle of Towton and the final slaughter of the Lancastrians by the Yorkists. 30,000 slain. Towton ended the civil war, and the king, Henry VI., escaped with Queen Margaret to Scotland.
 1772—Emanuel Swedenborg, celebrated naturalist,
 mathematician and theosophist, died. Born 1688. Swedenborg was born at Stockholm, the son of a chaplain, who afterward became bishop and was ennobled. Emanuel studied at the University of Upsal and became a doctor of philosophy, but his favorite study was mathematics.
 He obtained such distinction as a man of science that the king employed his talents in constructing military works.
 The service of the state occupied his time chiefly until he reached the age of 55, when he was retired on full pay for life. Meanwhile he had made a thorough investigation of anatomy for the purpose, as he declared, of investigating the soul. To speculations in philosophy he devoted the remainder of his life, or about 30 years.
 1814—Ex-Empress Josephine died in Malmaison, near Paris; born 1763.
 1870—Dr. Carl Friedrich Neumann, German historian and orientalist, died.
 1871—Louise, queen of Sweden, died; born 1819.
 1872—General Humphrey Marshall died at Louisville; born 1812.
 1891—Howard Crosby, clergyman, died in New York city; born there 1826.

REPUBLICAN SUCCESS.

The outlook for the success of the republican city ticket is very encouraging and there is every reason to believe that the ticket will be elected by a good majority.

The ward tickets are also recognized as exceptionally strong, and a republican victory will result all along the line. This issue, as the Gazette has stated before is purely a party issue, the verdict will determine whether a majority of the voters prefer republican or democratic rule. In this year 1895, when popular sentiment is so strongly pronounced in favor of republicanism, Janesville will not bestow to place herself in the popular column.

Mr. Childs, the candidate for mayor is recognized as a thoroughly loyal representative of his party. In addition to this he possesses elements of popularity that command strength, and his election is not a matter of doubt.

Mr. Badger, the nominee for city clerk, is thoroughly capable, and there is no reason why every republican in the city should not vote for him. His opponent is a man whom many democrats believe has held the office long enough, and his defeat would be no great disappointment to his party, and not an irreparable loss to the city.

Mr. Watson is certainly competent to fill the office of street commissioner, and Mr. Goldin and Mr. Kenyon are well equipped for the offices to which they have been nominated.

The ticket is a good one throughout, and the party behind it is the best party on earth.

Best Location in Town.

Some merchants accuse us of having the best location in town and say that's why we have the best business.
 It's the best location because we've made it so, but that's not all. We enjoy the best business because we have the best location advertise thoroughly. Keep our stock up to date, and sell 10 to 20 per cent below all others.

 We tell you honestly and frankly that we are not selling a few things at a loss. Not offering a bait on a thin line to get you in and then try our hypnotic powers and force you to take

 We believe in making a fair legitimate profit

 Everybody sells the best. If it happens that an overcoat is offered at $6.47 3-4 its always because the Napoleonic "buyer" get the best of some half-witted manufacturer who didn't know what his clothing was worth. A closely woven texture even, compact, strong, with a color which can battle with the wind, dust, sunlight, heat moisture, cold; that's what you must have in a light weight overcoat in this climate. Clay worsteds, chevots, tweeds, meltons and kerseys are good cloths, if the cloths are good. Black, browns, greys, drabs and blues are good colors if the colors are goods.

ANOTHER STEAMBOAT TO RIDE THE ROCK

BIG STERN WHEEL CRAFT TO BE BUILT.

It Will Be of Very Light Draught and May Be Fixed So That It Can Go Over the Indian Ford Dam—Captain Buchholz and J. M. Sailor Are the Owners.

ANOTHER substantial craft is to be added to the "Janesville Navy" and then the fleet, including steamers and naphtha launches, will consist of about a dozen boats. The latest addition will be built by Captain Alex. Buchholz and J. M. Sailor and it will be a large stern-wheel craft. The work of building the new boat will be commenced in a few days, and it is their intention to have it completed and ready for service to accommodate picnic parties, and others who wish to enjoy themselves up the river. The boat will be a flat bottom, so constructed that it will float in very shallow water. It will also be large enough to accommodate dancing or social parties on board, it being the intention of the promoters to use the new craft wholly for this purpose. Parties can have their picnics on board, while at the same time enjoy the ride up and down the river. "We may later on, construct a device at the Indian Ford dam so we can take this boat over that obstruction and on up to Lake Koshkonong," said Mr. Sailor today in talking about the new venture. The steamer Columbia will make her regular trips for the accommodation of the public.

DIPHTHERIA SCARE DID NOT PAN OUT

MISS SCHENCK'S HOME WAS PROPERLY QUARANTINED.

Case Was Not Reported As Diphtheria But Simply a "Peculiar Case" and Dr. Robinson Considered It Tonsillitis But Quarantined It As a Precaution—Hanthorn Family All Better.

There has been much criticism and fault-finding regarding the diphtheria case on North Franklin street, because the house was not quarantined before death occurred. Many of the reports set afloat are without foundation, and therefore unjust. These reports state that Miss Schenck was taken sick on Friday last, but the doctor was not called until Tuesday, when he at once reported to the health officer, and that official, after visiting the patient, decided that it was not diphtheria, but tonsillitis, and refused to quarantine the house until after the patient died yesterday morning. Health Officer Robinson was seen by a Gazette reporter this morning and in answer to queries in relation to the case said:

"There is very little truth in the reports. Dr. Pember notified me last Tuesday of this case, saying that he had a very peculiar case up there and wished I would go and see it. I immediately called on the patient and found her throat in bad condition, swollen under the jaws very much, but I could discover no trace of diphtheria. Mind you, Dr. Pember, did not report it as diphtheria, he only desired me to go and see it for myself. I considered it a severe case of tonsillitis, and did not deem it a case to place under quarantine regulations. The next I heard was of the patient's death, and after consulting with Dr. Pember, I concluded to quarantine the house, and did so at once."

The remains were buried last evening. George Davis, of F. D. Kimball's undertaking establishment, had charge of the burial and he said he did not believe the woman died of diphtheria.

"I could not discover any of the usual traces of diphtheria about the corpse," he said. "However, we took all the usual precautions in the burial."

Dr. Robinson says that there is now only one other house under quarantine for diphtheria, and that is Letter-Carrier Hanthorn's home, and that he should release the family on Monday. He also said that he believed it would be all right to raise the quarantine now, but Mr. Hanthorn being a letter carrier, he thought it might be well on this account to detain him a few days longer, or until Monday. Only two scarlet fever cards are now displayed, both of which were for mild cases of scarlatina, which were doing remarkably well.

CLAIM STIRS MILTON FOLKS UP

Henry Herbst says He Was Injured On a Defective Walk.

Henry Herbst through his attorneys, Fethers, Jeffris, Efffeld & Matheson, has served notice on the board of supervisors that he claims damages from the town of Milton. Herbst alleges that he received injuries by reason of a defective sidewalk located in the village of Milton Junction, said walk being located west of the Northwestern railroad. The claim has stirred Milton people up and The Telephone says that the supervisors and other citizens who have examined the walk where the injury is said to have been received are of the opinion that the same was not defective. The claim will be submitted to the voters at the town meeting, and it is for them to decide whether the town shall pay or reject it.

"It is high time that Milton made up its mind to fight such claims to a finish, and the responsibility ought not to be shifted onto the shoulders of our supervisors. Milton has been a soft snap," The Telephone continues, "long enough, and it does not follow that because sympathetic, weak-kneed jurors have given judgment against the town in one or two cases, that the tax payers should be bled by everybody who fancies that he can frighten them into paying him money. Instruct the board to contest the new case to the court of last resort, if necessary, and give those who claim damages, or may be thinking of doing so, to understand that Milton has thousands for defense, but not one cent for the payment of unjust claims."

UNITARIAN REVIVAL IS ENDED.

Rev. Southworth's Address Last Evening Was The Final Chapter.

The All Soul's revival meetings came to a close last evening with the address of Rev. Mr. Southworth of Ware, Mass. "Religion" was his subject and it was treated in an interesting manner. He held that one religion could not lay claim over another and that the efforts to make all kinds into one composite formation would be impossible. He held that he who truly knows himself knows God; he who is true to himself is true to God and that this was the religion of man. "What Is The Most Important Thing In Religion?" was the subject assigned to Rev. A. W. Gould of Chicago. He held that faith was the thing and argued that when we had faith in nature we will not need God on a throne waiting for a judgment day.

Musical numbers were rendered by Mrs. Hattie Torrens, who sang "Good Night" in her usual charming manner, and William Garbutt whose sweet tenor voice was heard to excellent advantage in "The Anchor Is Weighed."

It is not often that a person celebrates their ninety-second birthday; but such a pleasure was granted to Mrs. Susan Crossman, and the anniversary was most pleasantly commemorated by a party of friends at her home on Pine street, Fifth ward, last evening. Tea was served and the hours were very pleasantly passed. Mrs. Crossman is remarkably active for one so old, and does all the housework for her son and grandson. Those present at the celebration last night were Messdames Briggs, North, Church, Waggoner, Miller, Brisbane, and Coon and Messrs. Crossman and Warner.

WEIGHED 100 LOADS OF BARLEY

How John Pitcher Was Kept Busy Yesterday and Friday.

One hundred loads of Rock Prairie barley was weighed on John Pitcher's scales yesterday and today, all for shipment to a Jefferson maltster, who has purchased ten thousand bushels here, paying 50 cents a bushel. All this will be turned into malt in Jefferson. This leads a number of people who frequent the city market to advocate the establishment of a malt house in Janesville.

The latter has suffered terrible agony, as the flesh peeled off in many places when his clothing was removed.

LADY'S EAR CUT OFF BY A RUNAWAY TEAM

MRS. HENRY TRIPP PAINFULLY INJURED YESTERDAY.

In the Excitement of the Accident She Didn't Know She Was Hurt Until Half An Hour Afterward and the Ear Was Sewed On—James Sterers Hurt.

Mrs. Henry Tripp had her ear cut off in a runaway accident between Janesville and Beloit yesterday afternoon, and in the excitement of the smash-up she did not know it until half an hour afterward. Then she and her husband returned to the scene of the accident, found the ear and took it to Beloit, where a physician sewed it on.

Mr. and Mrs. Tripp reside in the town of Rock, and were returning home yesterday afternoon, when the team took fright and ran. Mr. Tripp could not control them and they plunged into a barbed wire fence, cutting one of the animals in a dangerous manner. When Mr. Tripp learned that Mrs. Tripp was hurt, he at once started for Beloit with her, but when they had gone half a mile, they learned of the injury and returned for the ear. Dr. Roberts was summoned by telegraph to treat the horse.

Because his horse had the "blind staggers" James Sterers of Stoughton, is nursing a broken arm and numerous cuts and bruises. Sterers was helping a neighbor move and was hauling a load of furniture from near Stoughton being bound for John Johnson's farm on the Beloit road, but while driving through the Pratt stone quarry the horse with the blind staggers was suddenly stricken and whirling about canted the wagon box enough to throw Sterers to the ground. He struck on his head and arm receiving a cut and severe bruises and breaking both bones of his right arm. He was brought to Janesville and Dr. W. H. Judd dressed his injuries.

THE JOHNSON CASE UP AT BELOIT

Edward Henrotin, the man who was arrested at Chicago on a charge of complicity in the affair was also taken down as a witness. A dray load of boxes in which the goods that it is claimed the men stole were packed also taken along to be used as evidence.

BABY CONTEST OPEN
BALLOTS IN DEMAND

THE CONTEST.

Five Shares of Stock In the Rock
County Building Loan and Savings Association Will be Given the Winner June 1—Value at Maturity Is $500 and It Is Non Assessable.

The polls for The Gazette contest for the babies is now open and the ballot will be found at the close of this article and will run until June 1, when the contest will close.
Much interest is centered in The Gazette's offer to present the baby who gets the highest number of votes with $500 worth of stock in the Rock County Building Loan and Savings Association. It is a prize worth getting, for naturally it will be worth just half a thousand dollars. That will be a nice nest egg if kept at interest after maturity until the child becomes old enough to want to use it.

It will buy an education.
It will buy a building lot.
It will buy a piano and the lessons necessary to play upon it.

It is more than many people are able to save in a life time.

Of course all the mothers and fathers want it for their babe. How to get it is told below:

The polls opened this morning and will remain open until June 1.
The baby that receives the most ballots in that time will receive a certificate calling for these five shares of stock. There are no dues to be paid, no assessments to be met, no installments to provide for. The stock stands for $500 in cash and on its maturity, which will be in nine and one-third years, the money will be ready. The prize is a handsome one—it is well worth winning and the conditions of the ballot are as follows:

From March 1 until June 1, a coupon will be printed in each issue of The Gazette.

Any one, anywhere in any state is entitled to vote as often as they buy a copy of The Janesville Gazette containing the above ballot.

Cut the ballot out (trimming on the dotted lines.) Write in the name of your candidate and enclose same in an envelope addressed to Ballot Editor, Gazette, Janesville, Wis.

Only one person can be voted for on one ballot.

The baby who receives the largest number of votes will receive five shares of stock in the Rock County Building & Savings Association, cash value, $500 at maturity.

The contest will close June 1 at 9
p. m., and the stock will be delivered as soon as the count of votes is completed.

Any non-subscriber who will subscribe for The Gazette and pay in advance will be entitled to the following number of ballots:

New subscriber paid in advance one month, 100 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance two months, 250 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance six months, 900 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance one year, 2,000 votes.

Each new subscriber who pays in advance and casts the number of votes specified is also entitled, of course, to cut coupons from the paper from day to day and vote in the regular manner.

No person will be allowed extra votes for stopping his paper and having it sent to another name at the same address.

In every instance they must be bona fide new subscribers.

No person will be allowed to stop his paper on Monday and start it again Tuesday and claim the premium offered.

No votes can be transferred from one candidate to another after being registered in this office.

Candidates must not be more than three years of age March 1, 1895, and must live in Janesville.

THE BALLOT.

The Publishers of "The Janesville Gazette" will give 5 Shares of stock in the Rock County Building, Loan & Savings Association to the Baby who receives the largest number of ballots.

—ONE VOTE FOR—

Of Janesville, Wis.

GREATEST PURIFIER
S.S.S.
FOR THE BLOOD.

DOESN'T KNOW HIS NAME.

A Man in Atlanta Offers $150 to Any Telling Him His Name.

A man whose mental constitution is seemingly sound in every respect save one has offered a reward of $150 for his name and the place of his former residence.

"I've got just $150 in sight, and I'll give that and my four horses to any man who will tell me who I am and where I came from. I'll give all I've got on earth to know just these two things."

And the strange part of it is, the man was deeply, desperately in earnest, and he was possessed of his mental faculty save in this unfortunate respect; he could remember neither his name nor where he once lived.

"It's the only thing I cannot remember," he said. "If I could only hear my name mentioned I would know all instantly. If you could just mention my name I would remember everything."

The strangely unfortunate patient sat in Chief Connolly's office talking to the chief and to Detectives Cason and Looney.
He looked vigorous and strong despite a month of confinement in the hospital. He talked with little trouble, and with intelligence upon all subjects save that relating to his name and past. Upon that his mind is a blank.

"Well, this is the strangest case I have ever seen," said the chief, "and something must be done to identify this man. I am satisfied that he is trying to conceal nothing about himself. The trouble is, he cannot remember, just as he says." He has been pronounced well for several days. Chief Connolly is determined to find out who the stranger is. He is confident that he is the victim of a diabolical plot, and he intends to prosecute his murderous assailants. He believes that the unfortunate man was robbed of a large sum of money.—Atlanta Constitution.

A chewing tobacco made to please a

JONES' ROAD BILL

Mr. Blake said that the present road law came from his section, having been introduced by Mr. Apple two years ago. He had talked with his constituents, and they seemed satisfied with the proposed bill amending the old law. He then answered Mr. De Groff on various points, and said that the only thing he had doubts about was whether town treasurers could be stopped from receiving 2 per cent for collecting road taxes. The bill seems to please the farmers of his section, and should vote for it.

Mr. Marsh moved to send the bill back to the committee, to be considered with No. 2, S., a road bill that is coming over from the senate.

S. S. Jones Spoke.

S. S. Jones, author of the bill, objected to the reference, and then defended the measure, saying it had been unjustly attacked, partly through jealousy. He was taken at length in favor of the bill, when the speaker said that the question was whether the bill should be sent back to the committee.

Mr. Marsh withdrew his motion, and then Mr. Hall said there was no use in sending it back. He thought it should be taken up and considered one section.

D. O. Mahoney said it looked as though the assembly was not ready to act, and he was in favor of taking time for careful work. The bill passed two years ago almost created a rebellion, and this one should be carefully considered.

Dr. DeGroff was in favor of sending the bill back.

S. S. Jones said there was no use spending further time on the bill, as every member had had a chance to inform himself.

Mr. Cox said it would be impossible to get up a road bill that would please everybody. The committee had done its best and there was no use of sending it back. He then defended the bill as a progressive measure that would lead to greater things in the future.

Sent to Committee.

Mr. Blake then moved to make the bill a special order for next Wednesday night. He said he believed that the bill should be carefully considered and he called attention to several points in which it was not sufficiently explicit.

The motion was voted down, and then Mr. Hall moved to send it to the judiciary committee.

S. S. Jones seconded the motion, saying he had a grudge against the committee.

Then Mr. DeGroff moved to lay the bill on the table, and an aye and no vote was demanded. The motion was lost by 39 to 41.

A vote was then taken on Mr. Hall's motion, and the bill went to the judiciary committee.

Swept By a Cyclone.

Of approbation to the pinnacle of popularity, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has acquired a commanding position, which has occasionally made it a bright and shining mark for knaves, who seek to foist upon the community spurious compounds in the guise of the real article. These are mostly local bitters or tonics of great impurity, and of course, devoid of medicinal efficacy. Beware of them and get the genuine Bitters, a real remedy for malaria, rheumatism, kidney trouble, dyspepsia, nervousness, constipation and biliousness. Physicians of eminence everywhere commend the great invigorant, both for its remedial properties and its purity. A wineglass three times a day, will soon bring vigor and regularity to a disordered and enfeebled system.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth.

Supposed Dead Man Is Found.
Raleigh, N. C., Special: William Newcomb of Greensboro thought his brother, J. M. Newcomb of Petersburg, Va., had been drowned by falling from a steamer last September on the way from Baltimore to Norfolk, but the missing brother has turned up at Greensboro, and this morning his son took him home. When his brother first arrived he looked upon him as a ghost, as he had long since given up hope of seeing him. His family were in mourning. The courts had declared him dead and $10,000 life insurance paid. When Newcomb got out of the water his mind was impaired by exposure and fright, and he wandered from Baltimore to New York, Chicago and New Orleans.

ELECTION NOTICE.

OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK,
JANESVILLE, WIS., March 25, 1895.

To the Electors of Rock County:

Notice is hereby given that a judicial election is to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the county of Rock, on the second day of April, A. D. 1895, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to this office, are given opposite the name of the office as designated below:

INFORMATION TO VOTERS:

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters: A voter upon entering the polling place, and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk, which must have endorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, voter must retire, alone, to a booth or compartment, and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform a voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter, to designate the candidates he wishes to vote for, must make a cross (X) in the square at the right of the name of each of such candidates. * * * * * If he wishes to vote for a person for either of the offices designated, whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name of such person in the blank space under the printed names of the candidates for the office, and make a cross (X) in the square to the right of it. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who may issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum, to assist the voter in making his ballot, can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it is marked by the voter. After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. The voter should pass out of the booth, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, and pass out of the voting place. A voter, who declares to the presiding officer, that he is unable to read, or by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have the assistance of one or two election officers in marking same, to be chosen by the voter. The presiding officer may administer an oath, in his discretion, as to such person's disability. The names of the candidates for the different offices and the principles represented in the nomination of each candidate are as below set forth.

Indians After Wives.
Richmond, Va., Special: Chief Bradley of the Virginia Pamunkey Indians called on Gov. O'Ferrall recently and told him that in the tribe numbering 102 there are only thirty squaws. This, Chief Bradley said, was a source of much worry to them, as they did not wish members of their tribe to marry into another race. He stated that there were about 4,000 Cherokee Indians in North Carolina, and that the Virginia Indians had about determined to send a representative to the old North state and try and induce some of the Cherokee squaws to emigrate to Virginia and marry among the Pamunkys. The governor told the chief he heartily approved of this plan, and hoped the trip of the representative would meet with success. The wife of the chief died recently of smallpox and he wants to marry again.
